Price List Valid until 28.2.2024

In the Kana'im valley which is in the Judean desert, between the city of Arad and ancient Masada, lies Kfar Hanokdim. It is a green oasis shaded by palm trees and crowned with biblically inspired gardens.

Merely walking into Kfar Hanokdim reveals a picturesque scene. Bedouin tents comfortably fitted with colorful rugs and mattresses.

Divans (Function halls) built from wood and local stone and decorated with carpets and fabrics woven from black goat's hair. Desert style guest rooms amongst conveniently positioned shady seated areas.

Please note - in this price list we chose to include only the activities that we find the most suitable for groups of tourists. If you want to hear about additional activities, we will be happy to send you the full price list and to answer any question that may arise.

Notes:

- Due to constraints arising from the far location of Kfar Hanokdim and the nature of hospitality - all activities are designed for groups numbering a minimum of 15 participants. For smaller groups payment will be made by small groups cost - please see FIT section (top 4th page).
- All prices in this price list are in NIS (₪) and do not include VAT (unless otherwise specified).
- Groups who sleep in the Kfar must provide a list of names with passport numbers and B2 visa to dismiss the tourists from paying VAT.
- VAT must be added when the activity does not include lodging and for Israeli escorts.
- Kfar Hanokdim operates on Fridays from October to May. (On Saturdays, the kfar operates on a limited basis). Before confirming the date to the client, make sure the kfar is operating at its normal format.
- During Holidays and on weekends there will be no traditional get together activity, the dinner will be served on buffet style only. There will be an additional charge of 25% to prices.
- The food served in Kfar Hanokdim is Kosher under the supervision of the Chief Rabbinate.

Away from the city noise and manmade lights lays Kfar Hanokdim - Serenity under clear star lit desert sky.

Bedouin tent: Guests can stay in a Bedouin tent made of black goat's hair. The tents are decorated in an authentic style and fully equipped with rugs and soft mattresses.

The desert climate is comfortable all year round, in summer the air is fresh and dry by day and cool and pleasant by night. As for winter, all tents are rain proofed and heated so guests can remain in light clothing.

Shahrezada tent: A beautiful outdoor option- The tents are decorated in an authentic style as if from an 'Arabian night's story'.

The tent has two parts; one is called 'The Makaad', decorated as an authentic Middle Eastern coffee house: comfortable low seating, coffee, and desert herb tea facilities, Nargilla water pipes and backgammon games. The other part of the tent is arranged for sleeping and each guest has a mattress, clean sheets and sleeping bags.

- For groups of minimum 30 guests.

Kfar Hanokdim's Designed Lodges (Sukkoths):

The village's most recent additions are uniquely designed lodges made with thick woolen sides and doors with decked wooden floors and a comfortably seated patio.

Situated on top of the lodge is a veranda from which you can feast your eyes of the desert view and enjoy the lucid air. The great advantage of the lodge is that it combines the desert sleeping arrangements with privacy. The Sukkah holds up to eight occupants.

Recommend to 6 pax maximum.

Accommodations in guest rooms:

Comfortable rooms decorated with natural materials and handicrafts with outdoor seating areas.

Air conditioning, an suite toilet and shower. The rooms have bed linen, towels, tea and coffee making facilities, hand soap and shampoo.

In most rooms - a double bed, a single bed and a bunk bed.

Accommodation in a stone room (superior)- a total of 12 rooms

New Spacious rooms facing the incredible desert view, in a complex decorated with unique stonework, a flower garden with colorful seating areas.

air conditioning, toilet and shower and small fridge.

2 bedrooms (in one room a double bed and in the other room 3 single beds).

The rooms have quality linen, a coffee and tea corner, shampoo, conditioner and body lotion.

Activities in kfar Hanokdim

Camel ride: This trek takes the guests on a circular route overlooking the surrounding mountains of the Kana'im valley and the Bedouin tents. Donkeys may be joined for small children due to decision of the staff Duration of trek - 30 min. the camel riding is double saddles. The trip takes place during daylight hours only.

Photo opportunity: Seat yourself on a camel and get your shot taken for the folks back home.

Camel riding is allowed from age five to age 67, and donkey riding from age of two, accompanied by an adult.

Camel Care: as part of the global trend and critique of many tourists about camel riding, we offer an alternative experience.

A personal and exciting encounter with the representative of desert life from ancient times to the present day- the camel!

A magical experience of connecting to the fascinating animal, the desert and history, during which we will learn about it, take pictures with the camels, feeding and pampering them.

A traditional get together (AKA Bedouin hospitality): Once the guests arrive at the village, the Bedouin host invites them to come inside a Bedouin tent to relax around the fire and sip Bedouin tea spiced with desert herbs. After the guests have settled down, the Bedouin host will perform the traditional coffee making ceremony roasting the coffee beans and drumming a traditional rhythm as he is grinding the coffee in a stone mortar. Explanations will accompany the occasion, enriched with stories from these desert dwelling people.

Traditional Dinner - Hafla: When dinner time arrives, guests are invited into one of the picturesque divans in the village, where a sumptuous and colorful buffet awaits them. The buffet is decorated with a variety of colorful salads: tahini, chickpeas, eggplant salad, pots are bubbling with rich vegetable soup, couscous, roast chicken and tender beef patties. Scattered on the spacious sofa are additional stalls, where pitas are served, as well as chilled lemonade and refreshing orange juice. Particularly colorful is the dessert stand, with trays laden with seasonal fruits and also with dishes with spicy Bedouin tea and Turkish coffee.

*Served at the buffet.

Nomads Feast

The buffet is filled with an array of bowls full of colorful salads: vegetable salad, masbaha chickpeas, green tahini, eggplant zeluka, white cabbage with nuts, beets, spicy fresh carrots, Moroccan tomato salad, salad of leaves and nuts, roasted hot peppers.

Beside the salads are jugs of chilled water, lemonade and orange juice.

Alongside the salads and beverages are platters laden with meat delicacies: carved beef breast, smoked chicken, beef stew with root vegetables and lamb fat and toppings: Jordanian rice, potatoes and sweet potatoes on the fire, antipasti skewers.

All dishes are served in abundance, in the best Bedouin tradition.

After the main meal, guests are offered with hot and steaming Bedouin tea or Turkish coffee, a fruit platter with ice cream in summer / hot cake with ice cream in winter.

All the guest is invited to recline on soft colorful sofas arranged around the tables or if a guest prefer, we also have high tables and chairs to sit on.

The serving utensils of the meal are reusable utensils.

 Served at the buffet only.

Breakfast:

Breakfast in the Nokdim Village includes dishes served with an Israeli breakfast as well as a Bedouin coffee corner and more. Also served - chopped vegetable platters, a variety of salads, homemade tahini, chickpeas with olive oil, tuna, olives and pickles, hard-boiled eggs and omelets. Bulgarian cheese, yellow cheese, white cheese, cottage cheese, butter, cereal, delicacies, halva, dulce de leche, house jams and chocolate spread
Breakfast is served until 08:30
